

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I do not trust what I see on TV news...if I look just below the surface I find that all the channels I watch and the browser I use to access the web are all owned by the same people...it gives me the creeps
